After 3 brothers from the Ryan Family have been killed, captain John H. Miller has to find the fourth son and send him home due to the 'sole survivor policy'. He takes six men to go find Ryan. He encounters many attacks but loses 2 of his men. When he arrives at the outskirts of Ramelle, he finds Ryan with the paratroopers that ambushed the Germans. Ryan is told about his brotherÕs death and those 2 men they lost on the quest for finding him. Then the Germans whom had tanks and 50 squad infantry attacked them. MillerÕs group had gone to three more casualties and then Miller is shot at. He lays there when a German tanks comes up, he uses his last will to destroy it with a pistol thinking it would do something. Suddenly an American Mustang pulls up and destroys the tank and pushes back the German force. Miller dies soon later after telling Ryan "JamesÉearn it. Earn it".

I like this movie because it shows how determine someone could be. Also that even against the odds they can still win. It has lots of action and suspense that keeps it exciting. The color scheme I chose was red, white, and blue with stars. This shows patriotism and the American flag of which the soldiers fought for.
